Prerequisite(s): MATH 103

Page of 44 52 2025–2026 | Highlands College | Academic Catalog

BUSI 305

Design Thinking and Innovation

3 Credit Hours

Explores the principles of entrepreneurship and innovation, including idea generation, business planning, and risk assessment. Introduces design thinking principles and innovative problem-solving tools to solve challenges and guide strategy.

Prerequisite(s): BUSI 101, BUSI 202, BUSI 212

BUSI 315

Corporate and Social Responsibility

3 Credit Hours

Identifies legal issues relevant to business operations, contracts, and employment law. Examines the legal environment in which nonprofits operate. Explores ethical dilemmas and the social responsibilities to customers, employees, investors, and society.

Prerequisite(s): BUSI 101, BUSI 202, BUSI 212

BUSI 325

Christian Business Principles

3 Credit Hours

This course explores the strategic and unique factors that set Christian business apart, grounding students in biblical values such as stewardship, integrity, and service. Building on Introduction to Christian Business, students will examine strategy, planning, statistical analysis, and decision-making through the lens of Scripture. The goal is to equip future leaders with both practical tools and Kingdom-centered wisdom for effective business impact.

Prerequisite(s):

BUSI 405

Kingdom Economics

3 Credit Hours

Students will gain a broad understanding of key economic principles, like supply and demand, markets, labor, and finance, while also engaging with how these principles apply uniquely to churches, non-profits, and Kingdom enterprises. The course integrates Biblical perspectives on provision, generosity, and stewardship, helping students see economics not only as a system of exchange but as a framework for advancing God's purposes in the world.

Prerequisite(s):

BUSI 415

Business Law

3 Credit Hours

This course introduces the foundational legal principles every business leader should know, from contracts and employment law to compliance and liability. Special emphasis is given to the unique legal considerations churches and non-profits face, including governance, tax-exempt status, and religious liberty. Students will leave equipped to navigate the legal landscape with discernment, integrity, and an understanding of wise counsel.

Prerequisite(s):

BUSI 425

Intermediate Financial Accounting

3 Credit Hours

Building on Introduction to Financial Accounting, this course provides a deeper dive into financial reporting, statements, and analysis. Students will learn how to apply accounting standards to complex business situations, preparing them to manage financial health with accuracy and excellence. Practical case studies will include both corporate and ministry contexts, reinforcing stewardship and accountability in leadership.

Prerequisite(s):

BUSI 435

Impact and Legacy

3 Credit Hours

Bridging the gap between business leadership and ministry, this course equips students to navigate the “language barrier” between spiritual and business worlds. Topics include communication, emotional intelligence, relational leadership, and building influence across diverse settings. Students will learn how to leverage their business acumen to create lasting Kingdom impact and legacy that outlives their careers.

Prerequisite(s):

BUSI 450

Business Management

3 Credit Hours

This course examines the critical management disciplines needed to lead organizations effectively, including risk management, change management, operations, and supply chain management. Students will integrate biblical principles with practical tools for leading teams, stewarding resources, and guiding organizations through growth and transition. The focus is on equipping leaders who can manage complexity while keeping mission and values at the forefront.
